Successful SQF Certification!

One world. One standard.

Bakersland is proud to receive the Safe Quality Food (SQF) Certification for the highest level of Food Safety Code in Food Manufacturing. The SQF Food Safety Code is a globally recognized, rigorous and comprehensive food safety and quality standard program.

Bakersland's foundation relies on continuously challenging ourselves to improve our manufacturing practices and to treat food safety as our priority. This SQF distinction showcases our commitment to producing safe and quality products that meet and surpass customer, industry, and regulatory standards. We are excited to continue delighting our customers with superior quality bakery products along with the best service.
